

Valuable but . . .

In reply to the letter from past mayor Stan Semenoff published in the Advocate November 24th, I would like to say that at no stage during the recent elections was Mr Semenoff accused of being a thief or a liar by Morris Cutforth, or anybody involved in his campaign. To suggest otherwise is to step into very dangerous territory.

Mr Semenoff is acknowledged as having been a very valuable servant of this district, and deserves thanks and recognition for this.

He would perhaps still be mayor had he run his council in a more open and communicative fashion, allowing councillors to speak openly.
