

Voters Beware

The media reports that big business interests in Whangarei are accused of trying to hijack the Council elections.

Attempts have been made to get other mayoral candidates to step aside so they can put their new man in.

Who is pulling the strings, and what do they expect in return?

Voters:

Support community representatives you can trust, not hidden business agendas.